

LICEO SCIENTIFICO MICHELANGELO

VIA DEI DONORATICO snc

CAGLIARI

Programma didattico 2019/2020

Classe: 2Bsa

Prof.ssa Federica Zanda

Present Simple: affirmative, negative and interrogative form
Present Continuous: affirmative, negative and interrogative form
Present Simple vs Present Simple
Verb to be
Can/cannot
Like/dislike/love/hate/enjoy plus gerund
Questions Words (why-where-when-why-who-how)
There is/there are
Possessive Case
The use of the future
Be going to
Will for the future
May for future possibilities
Might for future possibilities
Present Continuous as a future
The use of the Simple past: affirmative, negative and interrogative form
The use of the Simple past: regular verbs
The use of the Simple past: irregular verbs
Simple past of the verb to be
Simple Past of the modal verb "can": "could"
Simple Past of the verb "to have to": "had to"
Ordinal/cardinal numbers
Present Perfect: affirmative, negative and interrogative form
Present perfect with ever/never;
Present perfect with already, yet, just, still
Simple Past vs Present perfect
Relative Clauses (who, that, which, whose)

Cagliari, 06.06.2020

Prof.ssa Federica Zanda